Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 13-22,24-26 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection / objection.

Claim Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st paragraph

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 13-21,25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Negative proviso at the end of claims 13 and 21 is new matter.

Claim Rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a)

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 21,22 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hudetz et al (US 5,981,432; 11/9/99) on record. Hudetz discloses that pendimethalin, glyphosate, and glufosinate are equivalent herbicides. Hudetz teaches a method of applying said herbicides to cotton plants. See abstract. It would have been obvious to combine said herbicides into a single composition. One would have been motivated to do this since said herbicides are taught to be equivalent.

Claim Objection / Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 24 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Hudetz does not teach a method of applying a synergistic amount of the instant combination to plants. Claim 23 is allowable. The prior art does not teach or suggest a synergistic combination comprising glufosinate plus cycloxydim.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
